

Democrats, Republicans, Bull Moosers and Prohibitionist

Loyal to one cause: They are all agreed on one point, which goes to show that there are brains in each and every party. Politics play no part when it comes down to a man's appetite. He wants his foods properly cooked and whether it's Demrats, Pelicans or Bull Moose Meat, he knows there is but one way to properly prepare it, and that's on a MAJESTIC RANGE.

DON'T LET THE STOVE PEDDLERS tell you the price of the MAJESTIC Range. We Understand a "socalled" stove mail order concern, who are now working Christian county, have been passing the word along that the MAJESTIC Range could not be bought for less than a certain sum, and if we are correctly advised they misrepresent facts in order to close their sales. Get your information first hand, call No. 249 and we will take pleasure in quoting you prices on the famous MAJESTIC and we are right here to stand behind everything we guarantee. Ask our competitor to let you get his range red hot and throw a cake of ice on it before paying for it. He'll tell you couldn't afford to take the chance. Come down and get a MAJESTIC and try this test before paying a penny. Nuf said.

BUSY TIMES AT THE MOGUL

Double Shift Has Been Put On to Meet the Rush of Orders.

The Mogul Wagon Works is enjoying a period of unexampled activity and has so many orders ahead for wagons that it has been compelled to put on two shifts of 10 hours each. The factory, which has a capacity of 20 wagons a day, or 500 a month, has for some time been running 12 hours a day, but is still three months ahead with orders for wagons, and Manager C. B. Crutchfield this week put on an all-night shift, to double the factory's normal capacity.

Vice President Jas. M. Forbes has also moved his office out to the Mogul factory on 21st street and is assisting Mr. Crutchfield, the secretary and treasurer and general manager, during the unprecedented rush of business.

Mr. Crutchfield succeeded John F. Bible to his present position two years ago, but he has been with the plant in some capacity, working his way up, for the last twelve years. He understands the business in all its details, having spent some of his time selling the output on the road.

The new business is not traceable to war orders, but comes from all parts of the country, but principally from the Southern states. A large part of the shipments go to Texas and some into Mexico.

There is no better wagon made anywhere than the Mogul, which is building up a reputation far and wide. In spite of the great advance in materials, only a slight advance has been made in the selling price of the wagons.

Almost Incredible.

The Secretary of War has definite information that the enemies of Wilson in an attempt to discredit his Mexican policy and turn votes from him, have connived with Villa and his bandit band to attack the American forces on the border between now and election. The Secretary has ordered an investigation and in the meantime notified the officers to be in readiness for any emergency. The story seems almost incredible, but desperate men will do anything to accomplish their object. The announcement will counteract the attack, and make instead of taking votes from the President.

Licenses Issued.

A marriage license was issued Tuesday to Elzy L. Bond, son of J. S. Bond, and Miss Ora West, daughter of James West, all of this county. It was not stated when the wedding would occur.

A license was issued Tuesday to Leon Croft, son of John Croft, and Miss Vida May Johnson, daughter of J. N. Johnson.

NO HUGHES FOR DR. HAYNES

Answers An Appeal From New York For a $10 Subscription.

On Oct. 25, the "Republican National Committee of Physicians and Surgeons" sent out from New York a circular letter to the physicians one of which was sent to Dr. W. A. Haynes, of Howell, Ky. It urged him to vote for Hughes in order to secure national recognition of public hygiene, to show that the campaign can be financed by small popular subscriptions, although in former years "the whole brunt of the expense has been borne by a comparatively few loyal Republicans." The letter concluded with a request for $10.

Dr. Haynes answered the letter as follows:

Howell Kentucky, Oct. 31, 1916.
Republican National Committee of Physicians and Surgeons, New York City.

Sirs:

In reply to yours of October 25th, will say that this Committee needs my support to damn the poor people of the United States, and make poor people poorer, and the bloated fat bond holder richer. If Mr. Hughes stands for anything but a high tariff I have not seen it in any of his speeches.

This matter of patriotism; you howl like men wanting office to carry out their scheme. How many sons have you to sacrifice to the gods of war, and if you did have, what could you do with Germany?

How many of our sons would you give to put down lawlessness in Mexico? This patriotism is all rot. Some plutocrat wants his property protected in Mexico. This four years administration of Mr. Wilson's has never been equaled since this was a government. He has tried to help all the people. He has not only legislated for the money-sharks of this land, but for all the people. I am not only endorsing Wilson's candidacy but actively working to carry out his election.

Public hygiene is endorsed all over the land from the magistrate up. Every officer, Republican or Democrat of this nation, is trying to work out that proposition. What nation would not recognize public hygiene?

The future of this nation is of vital importance to me. Therefore, I would rather give one hundred dollars in the Wilson campaign fund than to lend my voice to a man and party whom, I think, has not the interest of this nation at heart.

It is my ambition to have my profession stand out boldly for God first, for Wilson second, and for the general uplift of the whole nation by serving God and voting for Wilson.

Yours truly,

WM. A. HAYNES, M. D.

MONDAY TAG DAY

For The Davis Memorial at Fairview.

Davis Memorial Day will be Monday Nov. 6th.

Gen. Bennett H. Young is urging the Daughters of the Confederacy and Veterans to show their colors by arranging some enthusiasm in regard to the Jefferson Davis Memorial. He advises "Tag Day" and thinks it will show how popular sentiment will trend. We do not mean our Tag Day to be a "holdup" day at all—far from it—but we want to feel the pulse of the people of our beautiful little city and our rich agricultural county and in a modest but substantial way show to Gens. Young, Littlefield and Carr, that we at least acknowledge the fact, that the fifty or probably seventy-five thousand dollars to be donated to our section, to honor the South's great chieftain, and perpetuate Southern History, by these generous and noble hearted men, will in a measure be appreciated. In a letter to the U. S. C. President, Gen. Young says: "Things look good at this end of the line. We are getting bids on a three hundred and fifty foot obelisk and we are going to put it through, and when we do, Christian county will have the biggest thing in the South. I am relying on the assistance of you ladies to make it very, very big. I have counted on Hopkinsville and Fairview a great deal because I thought the moral and general effect of their success would be good. Show your colors and report to me soon."

Truly,

BENNETT H. YOUNG.
